EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with James O'Malley on 5/8/2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

3. In the claims:

Claim 56 line 7 has been amended to insert --and a body-- immediately after "a base".

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: As noted in previous office actions, the closest prior art was Tinnerman 2303148, ('148) Tinnerman 2258342 ('342), and Parkin 3451455 ('455). A limited range of movement in 3 dimensions reads over the art except Tinnerman '342, as '148 and '455 do not provide for a limited range of motion in 3 dimensions. Examiner notes that a limited range of motion, read in view of the spec, would not include nut motion so limited that it is essentially immobilized in any dimension -- the point of the invention is to allow motion to allow for slight misalignments. Tinnerman '342 is designed so that the entire assembly, nut and cage, provides flexibility, but it does not have the arms extending from opposite corners of the base, it does not have 1st and 2nd wall portion such that at least one arm can be moved to allow the nut member 2nd portion to be positioned above the cage base and between 1st and 2nd wall portions of the cage member, and it does not have a cage member with a base portion, a body or wall portion, and arm, such that the arm extends directly from the base and engages the 1st portion of the nut.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
